Guest Performers and Lecturers

The Patriot Brass Ensemble, an organization that provides music for Veterans, performs sacred, secular, and military music, and will begin with music from the First World War, when the parish of Our Lady of Peace was formed. The concert will be narrated between pieces.

Denise De Vito is on the faculty of the St. Francis of Assisi Education Program, where she teaches courses on holy women from the ancient world through the Renaissance and New York City's historic houses of worship.

Gregory Dietrich, a preservation consultant, will present talks based on his recent historic architectural investigation prepared for the Friends of Our Lady of Peace. Mr. Dietrich specializes in architectural history, preservation planning and law, and cultural resource management.

Our Lady of Peace Prayer Community Choir provides the music for the activities of the prayer community and represents the parish at Charismatic conferences and musical events. Dedicated members share a passion for music and are inspired by modern and contemporary Christian music and faithfully provide the music for the 5:30pm Sunday Mass.
