The Church of Our Lady of Peace Open Its Doors to the Community during New York Landmarks Conservancy's "Sacred Sites Open House Weekend" (May 16 & 17)
Organized as Part of the 50th Anniversary of the City's Landmarks Law

Don't miss this opportunity to see the Church of Our Lady of Peace this weekend as part of New York Landmarks Conservancy's "Sacred Sites Open House Weekend," celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the City's Landmarks Law. This historic church, which the Archdiocese of New York wants to close in August, is in one of the oldest landmarked neighborhoods on the Upper East Side, the Treadwell Farm Historic District, at 237 East 62nd Street, between 2nd and 3rd Avenues in Manhattan. Events start Saturday, May 16 with an "Armed Forces Day Concert" by the Patriot Brass Ensemble, from 1-2 p.m., followed by lectures and guided tours until 4 p.m., and on Sunday, May 17, between 2-5 p.m., closing with the Charismatic Prayer Community Choir. Events are free. For more information, call 212-838-3189.
